WINEMAKER'S SERIES 2006 ICE WINE CABERNET FRANC

Idaho might be the perfect place to make Ice Wine, for it has the two distinct seasons that are required. First you must have a growing season warm enough to get the grapes ripe. Second, you need cold weather to arrive as soon as possible to freeze the grapes on the vine. The grapes are pressed while still frozen which concentrates the sugar, acid and most importantly, the flavors. Tedious and laborious to produce, the Ice Wine is well worth the trouble!

Wine Description: This wine is a dessert in and of itself. It is also wonderful with mild cheese and fruit.

Winemaker Notes: Beautiful strawberry notes in the aroma, a wonderful, light red hue. The mouth feel is where it really stands out: taste sensations run in every direction, pleasantly overwhelming the sense. Every sip is an experience.
